5 次の英文を読み、あとの問いに答えなさい。

Sudan is a large country in northeast Africa. It is a country with great promise. It also has great problems.

For many years the people of Sudan have suffered from war and hunger. Kevin Carter went there (①) as a photographer. ②He wanted the world to see the problems of Sudan.

One day Carter saw a child on the ground. He knew why the child was there. She was so hungry that she could not move. Suddenly a *vulture appeared and *approached the girl. He took a photo. The photo *appeared in newspapers all over the world. He won a *Pulitzer Prize for it.

At first ③this looks like a good thing. The picture shocked people around the world. They *were suddenly aware of the problems that the people of Sudan *faced. The world could help them. The people of Sudan could help themselves. ④Many hungry people got the food they needed. In this *view the photograph and the photographer did their jobs. Many lives were saved.

There is another view. The photograph was certainly shocking, so were the photographer's actions. The child was weak. She was dying. She was *in need. (⑤) the photographer took a photograph *instead of helping her right away. ⑥ This is wrong. He, and we, should always help people in need.

Mr. Carter had to decide between doing his work and helping the child. He decided to do his work. 7What do you think of his decision? What would you do?

*vulture:ハゲワシ *approach:近づく *appear:(新聞に) 載る

*Pulitzer Prize:ピューリッツァー賞(新聞などの優れた報道、文学、作曲に与えられる賞)

*were aware of ~:~に気が付いた *face:~に直面する *view:観点
