We do not know much about dodos. (A) example, we do not know what they ate. We do not know how they came to the islands though some people say they were once pigeons. But we know why dodos disappeared.

Their life in the islands of Mauritius was peaceful until 1598. In that year a Dutch ship came to the islands. (2)The ship brought not only humans but also dogs, rats and pigs. They began to eat dodos and their eggs. (3)A century later there were no dodos.

When dodos saw the newcomers, they did not know what they should do. (4)Because they had no enemies before, they did not know that they had to escape. Then they began to understand that the newcomers were their enemies, and tried to escape. But they did not know (5)() () (). They could not fly. They could not swim, (B).
