5 次の英文を読んで、あとの問いに答えなさい。

After four months in prison for *breaking into *safes, Jimmy Valentine was *released. Soon after that, several safes in the area were broken into. One shop owner bought a new and stronger safe. ①The next morning he discovered it open and empty.

Officer Ben Price looked at the *cases. He thought, "It's Jimmy's work. I'll catch him *no matter what."

Jimmy knew the police were after him. So he often moved from place to place. At each new place, he broke into safes.

Then he went to Elmore City.

One day in Elmore, he saw a woman walking down a street. Their eyes met. In that moment, he decided to start a new life. ②His life as a safebreaker was behind him.

Jimmy opened a shoe store and worked hard for many months. He made many new friends in the town. People respected him. He became friends with the woman, Susan Adams. Her father was the town's *banker. Jimmy asked her to marry him, and she *accepted. Their life together was going to start.

Mr Adams, Susan's father, bought a new safe for his bank. He was very (③) of it. One morning he took his family and Jimmy to the bank to show them the safe. His young grandchildren were playing near it.

Just then, Ben Price entered the bank. He saw Jimmy. "I've got him at last," he thought. He started toward Jimmy.

Suddenly there was a cry from Susan. She pointed at the safe. Its door was closed, and one of the grandchildren was locked in it. Through the heavy door, they could hear the *faint voice of the girl.

"It's *hopeless. Even I can't open the door," Mr Adams said. "And the safe company is many hours away."

Susan turned to Jimmy. "What can we do?"

Jimmy looked at Susan and smiled (④). "Susan," he said, "I made ⑤a promise to myself but I will break it. Only for you, dear. Only for you."

He turned to the safe. His old skills came back to him. In ten minutes the door was open, and the little girl was back in her family's arms.

⑥Jimmy heard Susan's voice when he was walking toward the front door. He didn't look back. His life in Elmore City was finished.

Officer Ben Price was standing at the door. "Well," Jimmy said to him, "You caught me at last. Let's go."

Ben *looked Jimmy over slowly. "I think you made a mistake, sir. I don't think I know you. And that young lady is calling you."

Ben Price turned, left the bank and walked down the street.
