*This is a diary written by Sam, a *British soldier during World War I.

I We were *face to face with the *German soldiers. ①We were close enough to hear each other. Sometimes we said good morning. Sometimes we listened to the cries. Each day the fighting started again. We were close enough to be friends, but ②we couldn't.

One afternoon, the Germans started to prepare a Christmas tree. It was Christmas Eve. I was very close to the tree, so I was able to see the shining candles on it.

II The Germans started singing "Silent Night". When they finished, we sang "Home, Sweet Home". ③That night, the two armies sang songs until darkness came. Then silence fell.

The next day was Christmas. A German soldier called out, "Happy Christmas!" I shouted back, "Same to you!"

Later, a German soldier *appeared. He shouted, "Don't shoot the gun!" Then another stood up. He was holding a bottle. "It's Christmas Day. We have wine and food. We want you to join us."

I turned to my friend Paul.

"Do they tell a lie?" I asked.

"I don't know but it's Christmas. Let's go." Paul stood up.

The two soldiers met on the *battlefield in peace.

III A German came to me. We shook hands. "My name is Abel. I'm a driver." "My name's Sam. I'm a teacher. Happy Christmas!" He showed me his family photo. I told my address to him.

One German's job is cutting hair. He gave some of us haircuts. We were very glad and thanked him. Paul knew some *magic tricks. He *delighted all of us, Germans and British.

We shared drinks and food. There was a lot of talking and laughing. I took some photos. Then someone brought out a ball. We began playing soccer and enjoyed it very much.

IV The wonderful time passed quickly. As the sun set and the stars came out, everyone knew it was over.

"Bye now. Take care," I said to Abel.

"Same to you," he said to me.

I waved to Abel last time as a friend.

The next day we fought again. Friends from the day before shot at each other.

But I will always remember that special moment of *friendship. ④The impossible thing happened. *Armies met in peace, not war.
